Jacques Herbin 1798 Anniversary Ink

Diamant Bleu—Enhanced with Silver Metallic Sheen

The 1798 collection celebrates the year Jacques Herbin first introduced his own line of quality inks. Bold and intense, 1798 inks are illuminated with shimmering flecks of silver for an elegant finish.

New for 2025, Diamant Bleu, with its deep and mysterious tones, shimmers with subtle silver reflections. This rich hue evokes the beauty and elegance of the rare blue diamond, conjuring the quiet allure of summer nights.

Clairefontaine Inkebana Notebooks

Artist Sophie Griotto's Clairefontaine collection is a true ode to the art of floral composition. Drawing inspiration from ikebana, she masterfully employs the white background and the dynamic choreography of her brush to create striking images that echo sun-baked cyanotypes. Known for her fashion illustrations and captivating depictions of Paris, Griotto finds painting flowers with ink to be a moment of escape and rejuvenation. This collection, aptly named "Inkebana"—a nod to both ink and the traditional Japanese art of floral composition—reflects a natural synergy between her artistic passion and the medium.

CERNiT

PREMIUM POLYMER CLAY

Beloved by artists, Cernit polymer clay can be used to sculpt figurines, jewelry, decorative objects, and more with incredible precision. Its smooth, pliable texture allows for endless creative possibilities. After sculpting, bake at 265°F for 30 minutes to transform the clay into permanent, but still flexible, objects.

- Nontoxic and odorless
- Easy to soften and shape
- Mixable colors for custom shades
- Remains flexible after baking
- Water resistant after baking
- Made in Belgium

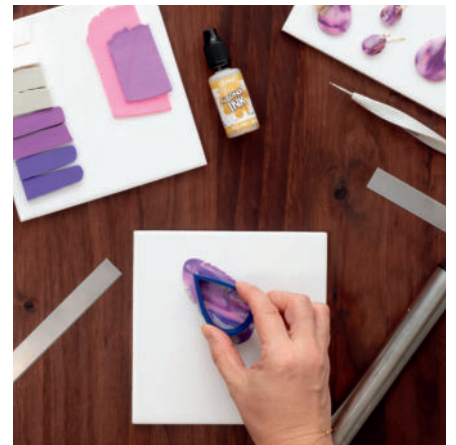

Cernit Polymer Clay is temperature-sensitive so to maintain the quality, please store it between 40–80°F. We may delay shipments due to extreme weather conditions to protect your order.
